Our local orcas, called the Southern Resident Community, were added to the Endangered Species List in 2005. They need plenty of salmon and clean water to thrive!